China

Gansu Province Report

The reaction of kindergarten children to cooked VitaMeal was excellent. Some said the colour of the food resembled chocolate. Some said that the food was like 'Eight-Jewel Porridge.' In no time, the children finished the food in their bowls.

The VitaMeal donated by the Provincial Women's Federation was very good for the growth of the 'left – behind' children, especially for the children who grew up in the rural mountainous areas where good nutrition is the exception. After more than one month observation, the health of the assisted students improved. Their height and weight increased. The VitaMeal food was consumed gratefully; it was warmly received by the students and their parents.

Bolivia

TUPIZA

This boy lives in the highlands of Bolivia. His father was a mineworker but died a few years ago. The boy is seven years old and is helping in the mines to earn money and help his mother provide enough to keep their family alive!

Food is expensive and many times he only ate once a day and then chewed coca to forget the hunger and stay awake. Because of the Feed the Children feeding programme he receives an additional meal of VitaMeal each day. He is concentrating better at school and his results have improved.

Many of the children of Tupiza were not attending school every day. Thanks to VitaMeal distribution, children now come more often and have an opportunity to change their future. They have the opportunity and the health to study, which will make a difference for their own families some day.

Malawi

Three year old Tisauke Sikedi is the third child in a family of four children. Her mother passed away and she was being raised by her father. Unfortunately, her father suffers from mental problems such that he does not always recognise his own children. He also forgot to feed little Tisauke and she stopped attending school. As the situation grew increasingly worse, Tisauke and her older sister finally left their home and father to stay with their grandmother. But their grandmother was not able to support them either so they were left to beg food at the local hospital.

Since coming to the Mtendere Orphan Village, Tisauke receives VitaMeal twice each day and has gained weight and completely recovered from her malnutrition. She has the following message for Nu Skin® distributors & NTC.

“I would like to thank NTC for providing VitaMeal porridge to Mtendere Orphan Village, many of us could have been dead as of now but we are still here because of VitaMeal porridge. I am able to go to school now and my future is bright. I would like to go to college and become a nurse. Thank you NTC!”
